

Promoting Universal Access for Theater and Out-of-School Time Educators

Please Join Us
Monday, September 14, 2009
10am-2pm
Wheelock Family Theatre
200 The Riverway
Boston, MA 02215

Partners for Youth with Disabilities/Access to Theatre; Wheelock Family Theatre; Build the Out-of-School Time Network (BOSTnet); and VSA arts of Massachusetts have partnered to bring you an event designed to build the skills of theater educators and out-of-school time staff to create more inclusive and engaging environments for all children and youth to explore their creativity.

Access To Theatre will be presenting short excerpts from recent productions, followed by a Q/A session and individual workshops geared toward theater educators and out-of-school time staff. The event is free to registered participants and lunch will be provided.

Wheelock Family Theatre is fully accessible. The event will be interpreted in American Sign Language, Audio-described, and Open Captioned.

Space is limited, so please register today! Register Online Here

This program is funded in part by the VSA arts of Massachusetts Cultural Access Grants with support from the Shapiro Family Foundation and the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

For more information, please contact:

- Michael Bennett, BOSTnet, bennett@bostnet.org; 617-720-1290 x 240
- Charles G. Baldwin, Wheelock Family Theatre, cbaldwin@wheelock.edu, 617-879-2147